ULMUS

1978

Melanie,
Good luck
in whatever you do. Just think less than a month + we will be out in the big world. I hope you have fun in whatever you do.
Your friend,
Ruth

Mel,
Well be graduating this year and I wish you lots of luck,
happiness, and love forever.
Your friend,
Love,

THE CLASS OF '78

Dedicates this

Yearbook to

OUR TOWN

And . . . . . .

Melanie Dalton

Melanie,
You finally made it! (just kidding) Be good but have fun. It's been nice knowing or getting to know you this year. Keep the faith and hold your head up high. Good luck in whatever ever you do + become. Good luck with 80.

Mr. BERES

We are very proud to dedicate our yearbook to a man who took great interest in us as a class as well as individuals. Although he was never our class sponsor, Mr. Beres was always willing to give us his advice and service on anything we asked. We appreciate his dedication toward helping us with our class play, the bell, and other extra-curricular activities from which we gained valuable experience. As members of the Ulmus Staff, we thank you, Mr. Beres.

CLASS HISTORY

Our first year in E.C.H.S. was exciting as it is for all Freshmen. Our class leaders were Dave Hurst, Pres.; Suzie Coulter, V.P.; Denise Dorich, Sec.; Patty McCoy, Tres.; Stella Record, Rep. Our Homecoming float, "Bomb 'Em", placed 3rd that year and our stunt, "Trojan County Line", didn't place.

We continued onward into our Sophomore year guided by Dale Kemper, Pres.; Kim McGuire, V.P.; Denise Dorich, Sec.; Tom Ramsay, Tres.; Tom Martin, Rep. We kept the same standing with our float, "Cage 'Em", and again our stunt, "We Are Stuck on Trojans", failed to place. The big thing for the Sophomores—we got our class rings in February of that year.

We charged into our Junior year with Suzie Coulter as Pres., Kathy Dawson, as V.P., Denise Dorich as Sec., Patty McCoy as Tres., and Melanie Dalton as Rep. Our float for Homecoming that year, "Bury 'Em", got 4th and our stunt, "S.Q.A.T.", missed the top 3 places. Our Junior class play "Our Town" was the first formal high school production in the new auditorium. The success of our play contributed the finances for the beautiful prom we created for the Seniors. The theme was "Tomorrow and Forever" with green and silver the colors. Kathy Lynall and Brian McAlister were Queen and King, with Bobbi Rushing and Lynn Shissler as Senior attendents, and Denise Dorich and Nick Reinhart as the Junior attendents.

Our Senior year began with the election of officers. They were Suzie Coulter, Pres.; Daryl Dorich, V.P.; Denise Dorich, Sec.; Patty McCoy, Tres.; Tracy Caulkins, Rep. We started the year off right by having a great initiation for the Freshmen. Then we continued on our winning ways by getting 1st on our Homecoming float, "Looks like We'll Dunk 'Em, Don't It", and 2nd on our stunt, "The Ugly Turkling". With our usual enthusiasm we look forward to the final semester of our high school years.

Elmwood Runners Win Class A

Andrews, Kissee Show Why Cross-Country's A Team Sport

By STAN HIERONYMUS

Elmwood sophomore Dan Harlan finished Saturday morning's Class A high school cross-country finals at Detweiller Park with tears in his eyes.

Normally Elmwood's No. 2 runner, Harlan had run fourth for the Trojans and 37th in the race. He had run creditably, but was worried about what he'd done to his team's chances to win the title.

Little more than an hour later the tears were in senior Daryl Dorich's eyes. "I was about to cry," said Dorich. Beecher had just collected the second place trophy, and that left only one for Elmwood — the one that goes to the state champion.

SOON HARLAN was busy gesutring to all his teammates — not just those who ran Saturday — to join the trophy in a picture. "Let's get the whole team in there," he said.

Elmwood became a state champion Saturday as a team. Beecher and Minooka had stronger showings up front. Lebanon got five runners in before Elmwood, but Elmwood had the least points — 118. Beecher finished with 140, Minooka with 143 and Lebanon with 147.

Mark Capelle of Highland St. Paul broke away in the final half-mile to capture the individual title in 14:49.6. Tom Stluka of Beecher was second and Dick Tucker of Rushville third.

"I think the numbers out there are a tremendous factor," Elmwood coach Tom Meyers said. "I think they do a tremendous psych job on your middle men and your fifth man."

Not Elmwood's. Rod Andrews and Mark Kissee worked together for two miles, and when they found Harlan struggling, Andrews went on to finish 25th and Kissee was 36th.

"I felt Mark and Rod kept Dan from fading right out of the race," said Meyers.

"We were after him, trying to get him going with us," said Kissee, who was one spot ahead of Harlan and one position better than he ran last year, when Elmwood was seventh.

"I JUST GOT lost," said Harlan. "Without Rod and Kaz I don't think I would have done as well." Haines, a 5-foot, 90-pound freshman, ran with Sam Durst early, then finished strong for 68th.

Haines has been a cross-country runner only since August. "It was football or cross-country," he said, "and I wasn't going to get killed by a 200-pound monster."

"WHEN THE SEASON started I felt we had four quality runners," Meyers said. "All we needed was a fifth man." He turned out to be Haines, who wasn't promoted to the varsity until the season was underway.

Elmwood's other runners had been in the state finals before, although of the top six only Dorich is a senior. But Haines hadn't. "I wasn't sure about him," said Meyers. "He was about 80th at the start."

"Right about then I thought, 'Boy, I must be crazy running with 160 guys,'" said Haines, who quickly set things right.

"You always hope," said Meyers, who coached Elmwood's first cross-country team five years ago, "but you don't believe. I probably don't believe it now."

He started to think it was possible when his runners continued to improve after the middle of October, a time when they began to level off in past years. "When you go out to practice and 12 guys improve it's just like a snowball," said Meyers. "Week after week." He thought it might take a little more to win a state title than he say in the first mile and a half Saturday.

"I thought we were in trouble," said Meyers, who secretly hoped that Dorich and Harlan might be with the leaders. Dorich was 14th, one spot behind Farmington rival Brian Elam. "You have your concept of doing what you have to to win," said Meyers.

FORTUNATELY FOR Elmwood, Andrews and Kissee were free of preconceptions. "I figured we were doing bad," Andrews said. "But we just kept going," said Kissee.

Right to a state championship.

Capelle played a waiting game before taking charge of the individual race late. "Last year I made my move at the mile and a half mark and it killed me," said Capelle.

So Saturday he bided his time. Tucker, who was 17 seconds behind Capelle last week in the sectional, tried to take charge of the race early in the final mile.

"I THOUGHT MAYBE I could open it up a little going downhill," said Tucker, who forged a small lead running north along Rt. 29 for the last time.

"When he made his move," Tucker said, remembering Capelle's surge with 880 yards left, "I knew I had to go with him. Then with 440 to go he started to pull away and i noticed my strength wasn't there."

Tucker, who led his team to 11th in the meet, was out two weeks in October because of the flu, leaving him behind on his training.

"I COULDN'T BELIEVE nobody went earlier," said Capelle. Tom Clennon of Minooka — the Class A two-mile and mile winner last spring — might have, but hasn't recovered from his own bout with the flu and was 11th Saturday.

"The first thing I said when it was over was. 'I'm glad,'" said Capelle, who is a sometimes reluctant runner. For instance, he only put in 13 miles training during the summer.

"But you're not going to take two months off now are you?" St. Paul coach Bob Vance asked Capelle after Saturday's race.

Capelle didn't answer.

Melanie,
Well I'm glad you & Bob finally have been able you get together. He's a really sweet guy. Of course you'll always be able to come over anytime you want. We will always keep in touch no matter what the other is doing or where the other is at. You are one of my closest & most honest friends I have. I'm really going to miss you not passing notes in the hallway either one of us in art class. No more heavy fighting, huh? Well keep doing things the right way & I'm sure it will make it.

Love Always,
Betty S.

Mel, looks like this is it, our final yearbook signing days. I hate to leave this dump! Most of all I'm going to miss all my friends! And you, too, I guess (just kidding) Heres something I think you might like.
Be seeing you! Good luck!
Love,
Sherry O.

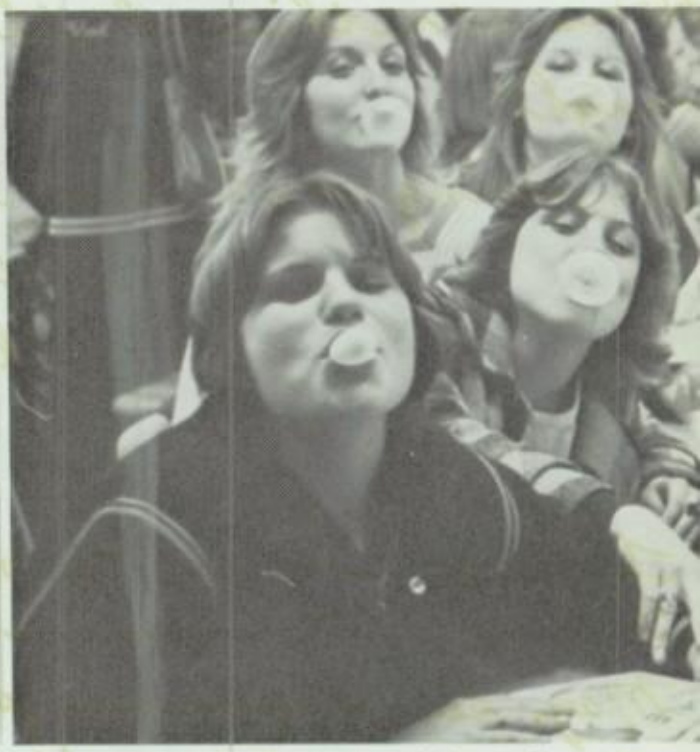
Let's see! If one basket is two points, two baskets are?????????

And to think ---- GILLESPIE gave this away!!!!!

GET UP AND BO-O-O-OGIE!!!!!!

The Bubble Gum Invaders.



Who's Wiener Hunting these days ??????

You should've seen the one that got away!

This is unbelievable!

We need a few good men.

Hi sweetheart!

State? These guys?

Guess who doesn't use Poly-Grip?

Who are you calling a boot!

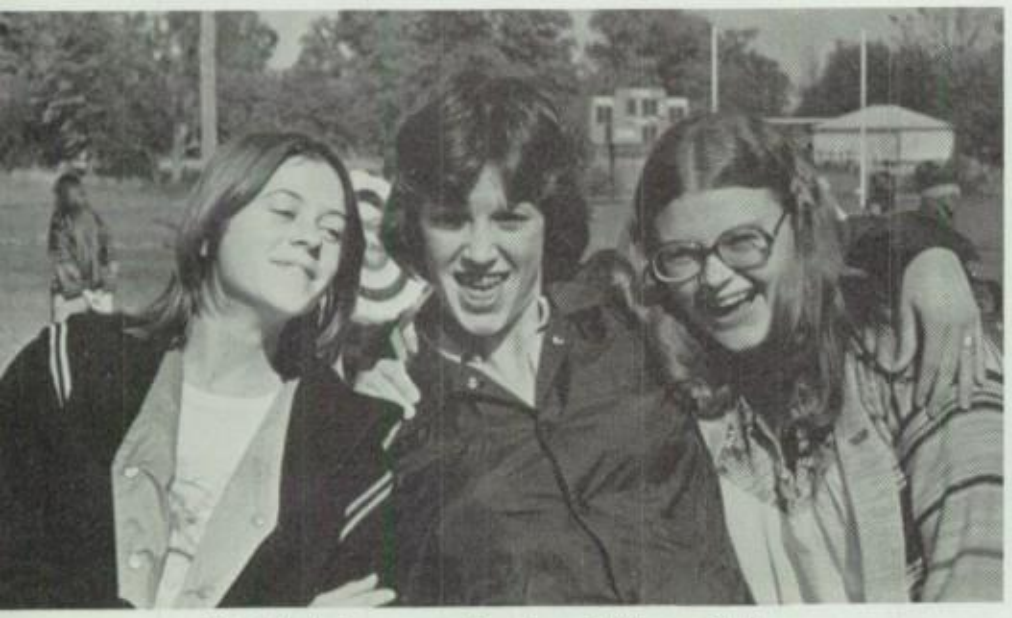
With one wave of my magic wand . . .

I can do it with my eyes closed!

Well, so can I!

Who lowered the ceiling?

Is it rain or spit?



Put that in your Funk and Wagnalls!

The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly.

Give the Queen a hand!

Body language???
